“Congregational Song: Paraphrases of the Psalms by Isaac Watts and Charles Wesley”

St. Andrews Lutheran Church (note change of location)
1416 Broad River Road
Columbia SC 29210

Monica Alexandra Harper is Director of Music and Organist at Wesley Monumental United Methodist Church in Savannah, Georgia, where she directs the Chancel Choir, Youth Choir, and Junior and Novice Choristers. During her tenure, the Wesley Choirs made a choral tour of the major cathedrals and churches in Paris. She earned her Doctor of Music degree from the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music with double majors in Organ and Church Music. While there, she was the Associate Instructor of Organ and Church Music. She earned her Master's degree in Organ and Church Music from Baylor University in Waco, Texas, and the A.B. degree in Organ, Piano and Accounting from Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia. Her organ instructors have included Fletcher Anderson, Marilyn Keiser, Joyce Jones and Chris Young. Dr. Harper has won national organ and church music prizes including third prize in the 2006-2008 National Young Artist Competition, second prize in the Rodland Church Music and Organ National Competition (2006, 2007 and 2008), and second prize in the 2005 Albert Schweitzer National Organ Competition. This year she became the Chorus Master for the Savannah Philharmonic.

Chapter Meeting

A message from the Dean:

During my time with the Greater Columbia AGO Chapter, I remember only one called meeting of the entire AGO membership (chapter meeting). Each AGO member needs to feel that they are part of the organization and its decision-making process. While I don't want to burden you with unnecessary meetings, I feel that we are disenfranchising members or creating the perception that the AGO Executive Committee makes all decisions for the AGO membership.

For the past two years, an appointed committee has been working diligently on revising the chapter policies and procedures document. The document is now complete, has been approved by the AGO National Office, and was sent to the Greater Columbia AGO Chapter membership in March. A vote of the entire membership must take place for adoption of the revised policies and procedures of the Greater Columbia AGO Chapter.

I am calling a brief meeting of the membership prior to the April 13 meeting at St. Andrews Lutheran Church for discussion and adoption of this document. A catered dinner will be served at 6:00 p.m. prior to the program. Watch for details about reservations and cost of the dinner in the next newsletter. This will be a wonderful time to reconnect with AGO members and to greet our presenter for the evening program. Below is the timeline for the evening's events. Please join us for an interesting, informative meeting and program on April 13. I look forward to seeing familiar and new faces at the gathering. —Frances Webb, Dean

BRAVO!

On Saturday, March 7, three outstanding high school organists performed in the Young Organist Competition held at Shandon United Methodist Church. Judges for the event were Paul Thomas (Cathedral of St. Luke and St. Paul, Charleston SC), Patrick Scott (Cathedral of St. Philip, Atlanta GA), and Kenneth Miller (Trinity Cathedral, Columbia SC). Anna McIlwain (Simpsonville SC), student of Ed Dunbar, won the $300 third place prize. Raymond Hawkins (Winston-Salem NC), student of Timothy Olsen, garnered the second place prize of $500. David Stultz (Hixson TN), student of Jason Duroy, took the first place prize of $1000 and also the hymn playing award of $250. David will return to Columbia in November to perform a solo recital. A catered lunch for the contestants, their parents, the judges, and all the wonderful donors followed the competition.

This competition has happened for five consecutive years and is made possible ENTIRELY by donations from AGO members, friends of AGO, and people who love organ music and want to encourage the next generation of performers. You too can be part of this educational venture. Donations of any amount are gladly accepted and may be sent to Frances Webb, 92 Currant Lane, Columbia SC 29210 throughout the year.

MAY PROGRAM

Friday, May 15 at 7:30 p.m.
Ebenezer Lutheran Church
1301 Richland Street
Columbia SC 29201

On Friday, May 15, the Patrons and Friends of the Arts at Ebenezer and the Greater Columbia AGO Chapter will join forces to present Michael Ging and Sarah Lysiak in concert at Ebenezer Lutheran Church.

This concert will be a sneak preview of the concert which the duo will perform for the L'organo Series of Piccolo Spoleto on May 24 at the Cathedral of John the Baptist in Charleston SC. Along with soprano Sarah Lysiak, Michael will be performing "Triptych on Poems by Robert Bridge", a piece which Tom White, Cantor at Ebenezer Lutheran, was commissioned to compose for the duo by New Hope Lutheran Church in Houston TX. The premier of the work took place on February 13 in Texas.

A native of Charleston, South Carolina, Michael David Ging is the Organist-in-Residence at New Hope Lutheran Church in Missouri City, Texas and is currently pursuing the Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the University of Houston's Moores School of Music where he studies organ with Dr. Robert Bates and conducting with Dr. Betsy Cook Weber. An experienced performer, Mr. Ging is privileged to perform throughout much of the United States as a solo artist, in festivals such as the renowned Piccolo Spoleto Festival, and as soloist in organ concertos by Howard Hanson, Daniel Sigmon, and Ryan Gagnon. In performance competitions, he has received first prize in the 2008 Richard Van Sciver Organ Competition and the 2014 University of Alabama Organ Competition, a prize which afforded him the opportunity to be a featured performer at the 2014 University of Alabama Piano and Organ Festival. A strong advocate for new music, Mr. Ging has premiered compositions by Daniel J. Knaggs, Ryan Gagnon, and Daniel Sigmon. He appears on the 2013 release Daniel Knaggs – A New Spring Time by ECCE Recordings. Mr. Ging holds the degrees of Bachelor of Music from the Oberlin College Conservatory of Music and Master of Music from Rice University's Shepherd School of Music.

Sarah Lysiak, Director of Choral Activities at Hosanna Lutheran Church in Houston, Texas, is currently in her first season as a member of the Houston Grand Opera Chorus, and maintains an active teaching studio. Equally at home teaching or on stage, her recent engagements have included the roles of Mimí in La Bohème, Marianne in Der Rosenkavalier, Alice Ford in Falstaff, Matilde Neruda in Il Postino, First Lady in The Magic Flute, La Baronne in La Vie Parisienne, Lady Billows in Albert Herring, and Fiordiligi in Così fan tutte. Ms. Lysiak is a graduate of the acclaimed opera program at the University of Houston's Moores School of Music and received her undergraduate training from the University of North Carolina School of the Arts. Ms. Lysiak resides in Houston and studies with Rice University professor, Barbara Paver.

RODGERS Artist SERIES™

The new Artist 599 installed at First Presbyterian Church in Wadesboro, NC replaces their 40+ year old Rodgers 330 three manual analog organ.

According to Janice Chandler, who has been organist at this church for most of the 40 years, she only had 5 service calls on the 330 and 3 were in the past year.

Rev. Carl Dumford is Pastor, and after considering several other digital organ companies and talking to other respected organists in the area, the decision was made to stay the course with

AGO PIPE ORGAN ENCOUNTERS WITH THE KING OF INSTRUMENTS PROVIDE OPPORTUNITIES FOR EDUCATION AND FELLOWSHIP

Six Summer Educational Programs for Teenagers and Young Adults Announced by the AGO with Generous Funding Provided by the Associated Pipe Organ Builders of America and the American Institute of Organbuilders

NEW YORK CITY—The American Guild of Organists (AGO) is proud to announce four PIPE ORGAN ENCOUNTERS (POEs) and one POE (Advanced) for students aged 13–18; and one POE (Technical) for students aged 16–23 in 2015. Generous funding from the Associated Pipe Organ Builders of America (APOBA) and the American Institute of Organbuilders (AIO) will support the summer programs, which will be held from coast to coast. Complete contact information for each Pipe Organ Encounter can be found in The American Organist Magazine and online at www.agohq.org. The summer schedule follows:

POE for ages 13–18
June 14–19 Wichita, Kans.
July 5–10 Valparaiso, Ind.
July 12–17 Columbus, Ga.
July 26–31 Brooklyn, N.Y.

POE (Advanced) for ages 13–18
June 14–19 Norman, Okla.

POE (Technical) for ages 16–23
June 14–19 Norman, Okla.

“The AGO and APOBA have enjoyed a mutually beneficial relationship since 1975,” declared AGO Executive Director James Thomashower. “Likewise, the AIO has been active in supporting the Guild’s educational programs, beginning with their partnership in Pulling Out All the Stops, a video produced jointly by the AGO, AIO, APOBA, the Organ Historical Society, and the American Theater Organ Society in 1996. Collectively, APOBA and the AIO have contributed more than $475,000 in support of the AGO’s educational programs during our long association. For their ongoing, committed generosity in supporting the Guild’s mission—to enrich lives through organ and choral music—we are extremely grateful.”

The PIPE ORGAN ENCOUNTER (POE) is an introduction to the pipe organ through instruction in organ playing, repertoire, history, design, and construction. These regional summer organ music institutes for teenage students provide private and group instruction in service playing and solo repertoire, opportunities to learn about the musical heritage of various religious denominations, and a chance for young musicians to meet others with similar interests. Basic keyboard proficiency is required, although previous organ study is not necessary. The POE (Advanced) provides intermediate to advanced classes in areas such as organ literature, history, pipe organ construction and design, music theory, improvisation, conducting, and service playing for students who have achieved a high level of success in organ study. The POE (Technical) is a program designed for students who are interested in learning the art and craft of organ building. Scholarship assistance is available; the application deadline is April 15.

THE COLUMBIA CHORAL SOCIETY has new and used copies of repertoire sung in previous seasons for sale. Octavos are available $1 per new copy; $0.50 per used copy. Major works are available at $3 per new copy; $1 per used copy. All works are for mixed chorus unless otherwise noted. Please contact Matt Caine, matthew@lsumc.net, for more information.
