

The Greater Columbia Organist

July 2026

2026-27 PROGRAM YEAR

Our chapter's board is at work planning a wonderful program year for 2026-27. Details will be coming soon. In the meantime, we need your help!

MEMBERS' RECITAL VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The upcoming program year will include two members' recitals. If you'd like to volunteer to perform in one or both, please contact Joy Ackerman at jpackerman@att.net

- Thursday, September 17 - Members' Recital – This is our opening program, preceded by a dinner. Feel free to choose music that you love to play. A program that includes a variety of styles and levels of difficulty is always well-received.
- Thursday, October 29 – Halloween-themed Members' Recital, preceded by a dinner. This will be a fun evening and a chance to share pieces you might not play on Sunday morning! Anna Lapwood's transcription of music from Pirates of the Caribbean has already been claimed, as well as Albrecht's Jig for the Feet (Totentanz). No doubt, there are many others that would give us a scare!

Rehoboth Global Methodist Church, located at 6911 Two Notch Road, Columbia, SC, is seeking a part-time pianist/choir director for weekly choir practice and Sunday morning worship and special seasonal services. Email resume to office@rehobothchurchsc.com and for more information.

St. Joseph Catholic Church in Columbia, South Carolina is seeking a highly skilled and collaborative Organist to support the liturgical and musical life of our parish. This position comes at an exciting and historic moment for St. Joseph, as the parish prepares for the installation of a new three-manual Mascioni pipe organ with approximately 52 ranks and 2,744 pipes, the first Mascioni organ ever installed in North America. The Organist will serve as principal organist for weekend Masses, Holy Days, major liturgies, weekly rehearsals, weddings, funerals, and other parish celebrations. The position may be structured according to the candidate's experience, qualifications, and desired level of involvement in the music ministry. For a candidate interested in a broader role, additional hours and compensation may be available, including the possibility of conducting one of the parish's children's choirs, if qualified. Candidates whose primary interest is serving as weekend organist are also encouraged to apply, with hours and compensation adjusted accordingly. Depending on the final scope of responsibilities, the position may range up to approximately 30–35 hours per week.

Salary is $45,000–$66,000, commensurate with experience and final scope of responsibilities, with an hourly option available. Additional compensation opportunities are offered for weddings and funerals. Benefits include health, dental, and vision insurance with 50% employer-paid premiums, a 403(b)-retirement plan with employer match, paid vacation including five weekends off annually, and $2,000 annually for continuing education, professional development, conferences, memberships, and workshops.

Qualified candidates should submit a cover letter, résumé or curriculum vitae, and three professional references to Worth Lewallen, Director of Music, at worth@stjosephcolumbia.org.

St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Columbia, a predominantly African American Anglo-Catholic parish, is seeking a ¼ time - part-time Organist and/or Organist and Choirmaster for its 10:00 a.m. Sunday masses. The Organ is a 2-manual Allen Renaissance Quantum, Acoustic Portrait, 58 stops. Choir Rehearsals are on Wednesdays from 6:00pm-7:30pm (the day and time can be adjusted by the new organist). Job duties include leading congregational singing, accompanying and directing anthems, ensembles, and soloists at organ/piano. Also accompanies the Cantor in singing the psalms, and the Gospel Acclamation.

Special services include Epiphany Lenten Wednesdays, Holy Week, Ascension Day, Christmas Eve Mass, etc. The organist also plays for weddings and funerals per church policy. We seek someone with vision, imagination, creativity, flexibility; a self-motivator with the ability to teach and inspire our eight-member choir (four of whom are paid professional staff singers). The ability to work independently and in conjunction with the priest as well as an openness to versatility during special times of the Church year is a must. Hymns used come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing, II, Wonder, Love, and Praise, and other liturgical resources that lend themselves to the appropriateness of the liturgy.

Knowledge of the Anglican/Episcopal liturgy, classical solo and/or choral vocal pieces/works, and the literature and works of African American composers is highly desired but not required. Salary negotiable depending on experience and ability. Please submit Cover Letter and Resumé along with two or three references to fr.raphiell@gmail.com with the word Organist/Choirmaster in the subject line: You may also call the church office (803) 254-2327 to speak with the priest, Fr. Raphiell Ashford, for more information, or email me directly at the email address above if you have any questions regarding the position.
