How Old Is Our Chapter?

Happy 90th Birthday!

According to the national AGO database, the charter date for the Greater Columbia Chapter is listed as 5/8/1933. Our records indicate that the “SC Chapter,” which was probably based in Columbia was started around 1937. (See list of Deans on page four of your directory.) This list also says that the “Columbia Chapter” was organized in 1952.

When someone from national was asked about our charter date, they said, “You will be turning 90 next May. Sadly, we don't have a SC Chapter or a Columbia Chapter in our database, so I can't tell you the charter date for either of them.” We think that when the name of the chapter was changed from “The South Carolina Chapter” to “The Columbia Chapter” to “The Greater Columbia Chapter,” the national office simply replaced the old name with the new name. The change from “Columbia Chapter” to “Greater Columbia Chapter” was around 1999-2000.

DO YOU KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT OUR HISTORY OR DO YOU HAVE OLD DOCUMENTS THAT MAY HELP US IN KNOWING THE EXACT AGE OF OUR CHAPTER?

We would like to share some of this history at our September meeting. Please contact Susan Sturkie at sloopystur@aol.com if you have information or old directories, newsletters, programs, etc.
