May Meeting Organ Demonstration - Registration Video Potluck Meal

Tuesday, May 24, 2016

6:30 p.m.

St. John's Episcopal Church
2827 Wheat Street
Columbia SC 29205

Please RSVP by May 20 to Tony Roof (803-606-1596 or tonyroof@windstream.net) if you are attending so we can have an accurate count for the main dish

The Greater Columbia AGO Chapter will hold its final meeting of the 2015-2016 program year on May 24 at St. John's Episcopal Church. The rebuilt Tellers pipe organ with a new console is being installed and will be ready for a demonstration following our meeting.

Members are asked to bring a side dish for a potluck meal beginning at 6:30 p.m. AGO will provide a main dish, drinks, and paper products. Members should bring a vegetable, salad, or dessert.

In memory of AGO member Sally Cherrington-Beggs who died in March of 2012, a video on registration which she produced for the Allen Organ Company will be viewed. Lincoln Pipe Organs of Lincolnton, NC, (formerly John Dower Pipe Organs) has been in charge of the rebuilding of the Tellers pipe organ under the watchful eye of Stephen Spake. Our own member David Lowry is the consultant on the project. Organist/choirmaster Celia Tolar-Bane has graciously agreed to host this event. Please make the effort to attend and be a part of this exciting end-of-the-year program.

ROBERT TRIPLETT

The Greater Columbia AGO chapter is saddened by the death of member Robert Triplett, who passed away on April 25, 2016. Robert had only a few family members. No service plans have been made at this time. His body is going to University research.

He was a volunteer with Historic Columbia. The following is from their Facebook page.

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Dr. Robert Triplett. After a long illness, he died on Monday, April 25th. Robert was a lively, charming, cultured, independent man, with strong feelings, strong ideas and strong interests including art, music and, of course, Historic Columbia. He had been an active guide with HC for many years. Originally from Chester, SC, he became a college professor in Iowa, teaching music and playing the organ, and continued his interest and involvement with the organ when he moved to Columbia, playing at various churches for many years.

A few of the HC staff with whom Robert worked closely remember him below.

Robert was one of the first volunteers I grew to know when I joined HC eight years ago. I'll always remember his love for sharing new information on the Hampton and Preston families and his ability to enthrall visitors with the ways he shared the stories about the site. Robert and I often chuckled when he would call to ask for me to help him fix any given computer issue he managed to work his way into that week. Inevitably, we'd get it figured out and then I would have to wait a moment while he grabbed a pen to write down the steps to keep the issue from happening again. In those moments, other topics of conversation would arise and over the years we traded thoughts on a myriad of subjects which allowed me to appreciate his humor and intellect.

-James Quint, Director of Education

Robert was a great tour guide and volunteer. He was great because he was a story teller who interacted with people in a friendly and casual manner. Robert's mind was always inquisitive and sharp. He had no qualms about challenging perceived facts if he felt that there was more to the story. He contacted me on several occasions to find out more information about an object, or what to some might have been an obscure history factoid. I have no doubt that his gentlemanly southern drawl, especially the way he could draw out the word "yesss", only added to his tours, especially for people not from South Carolina. Robert will be greatly missed and we appreciate his years of dedication and stewardship in interpreting our historic house museums for hundreds of visitors.

-Fielding Freed, Director of Historic House Museums

One of my fondest memories of Robert dates back about ten years, when Historic Columbia offered a downtown tour of several places of worship. Robert was an accomplished organist, who, on that day, played a delightful concert at Washington Street Methodist that added such an incredible spirit to the event. He was a gentleman and one of Historic Columbia's staunchest supporters, whose personable approach to his visitors instantly made them feel welcome.

-John Sherrer, Director of Cultural Resources

My fond memories of Robert are many. There was Robert wearing his stylish straw hat leading a custom carriage tour for ladies from Laurel Crest. Robert holding a young child spellbound on a Hampton Preston tour. Robert gaining the attention of weary group tour members and bringing smiles to their faces as his presentation began. Robert reading, studying, researching and memorizing until he was satisfied with his tours. And Robert always, but always, ordering dessert at monthly lunches. Robert brought his joy and zest for life to his volunteer efforts at Historic Columbia and we were enriched by his presence.

-Ann Posner, Former Volunteer Director

Thank you, Robert, for all your work making Historic Columbia such a special place, for so many people, for so many years.

Mr. Alvin "Al" Eugene Kelley

We also send our sympathies to AGO member Nancy Kelley on the death of her husband.

Mr. Alvin "Al" Eugene Kelley, 80, passed away Thursday, March 24, 2016.

Al is survived by his wife of 53 years, Nancy Brannen Kelley; his sons, Gene Kelley (Christine), Paul Kelley; two grandchildren, Regan and Matt, all of Columbia; a sister, Mary Frances Barnhart of Randleman, N.C.; and many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by two brothers, H.T. Kelley Jr., LeRoy Kelley; and a sister, Ola Belle Walker.

Memorials may be made to Shandon UMC Endowment Fund, 3407 Devine Street, Columbia, SC 29205.

MEET YOUR AGO OFFICERS

DEAN

Frances Webb earned a bachelor's degree in piano pedagogy from Coker College in 1967. Her graduate work was done at Indiana University where she completed a master's degree in piano performance in 1969.

Her 36-year teaching career was spent at Texas State University in San Marcos, Texas where she taught applied piano and piano literature. She was one of the founders of the Young Pianist Competition held each spring at the university. Her performance specialty was accompanying both faculty and students. During her time in San Marcos, she was organist and music director for St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Upon retirement in 2006, she returned to her home state of South Carolina.

In her retirement she taught as an adjunct professor of organ at Columbia College and was the accompanist for Columbia Choral Society for three years. Since arriving in Columbia 10 years ago, she has served as substitute organist for 53 churches. Presently she serves as Dean of the Greater Columbia Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and as chair of the Young Organist Competition. As a member of Symphony League, she chairs the Arthur Fraser International Competition Committee. This competition is part of the Southeastern Piano Festival held in June each year at USC.

SUB-DEAN

Joy Ackerman has just begun her 34th year as Organist and Choir Director at McGregor Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). She and husband Bill live at Lake Murray near Irmo. Joy holds a B.A. Degree in Music and an M.E. Degree in Elementary Guidance from the University of South Carolina. She began her music career teaching piano and taught in her home for sixteen years. Joy is grateful for the training she has received from many wonderful musicians, including Marian Manwiller (piano, Florence, SC), John Kenneth Adams (piano, USC), the late Mary Lib Avinger (organ, USC) and the late Arpad Darazs (Concert Choir and Choral Conducting, USC). Now that Joy is retired from her other career as an elementary guidance counselor, she enjoys concerts and recitals, movies, sunset boat rides, and being a grandmother to six-year-old Ben.

SECRETARY

Margaret Kirkman Davis is Director of Music at Brookland United Methodist Church in West Columbia. This year marks her 51st year of service as choir director and organist in various denominations. (She began when she was 3.) Margaret holds a B.M. degree from UNC-G and M.M.Ed. from USC, with doctoral studies in choral and instrumental music. She has extensive performing experience and has taught children and adults from ages from 2 to 86 in public and private schools and in arts centers. She teaches piano at Brookland UMC and teaches Music and Movement at Redeemer Lutheran Preschool. Margaret and her husband Gary enjoy gardening, cooking, entertaining their cat Miles Davis, and playing with their 4 amazing (of course!) grandchildren, Billy, Ben, McKenna, and Colin.

TREASURER

Tony Roof serves as Minister of Music at Pisgah Lutheran Church, Lexington. He has served there since 1992 and his duties include directing the choirs & handbells, organist, and service planning.

Tony holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Newberry College and is plant manager over 50+ employees at Roof Basket Works in Lexington, a position he has held since 1985. Roof Basket Works manufactures over 5 million wooden baskets annually with distribution across the United States and Canada for both agricultural and decorative applications.

Tony is very active in the Association of Lutheran Musicians of South Carolina where he has served as President since 1992 and has been responsible for bringing numerous nationally recognized artists and lecturers into the state. For AGO he has served as Dean (2004-10), Sub-dean (2000-04 and 2013-16) and also served as the coordinator for the 2013 Region IV convention of the American Guild of Organists. He is currently also serving as District Convener of South Carolina for AGO.

In his spare time, Tony is President and Financial Director for the Lexington County Arts Association/ Village Square Theatre and Vice-President of the SC Gay and Lesbian Business Guild. He was awarded by the Lexington County Arts Association in 2014 with the Standing Ovation Award and again in 2015 with the Barbara Bise volunteer of the year award.

MEMBER-AT-LARGE

Dr. David Lowry is the Parish Musician of The Church of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal) where he has been for 19 years. He is Professor Emeritus of Music at Winthrop University where he was chair of the organ department for 47 years. He is a past Dean of the Charlotte Chapter, AGO, and a past President of the Association of Anglican Musicians, and the founder/conductor of the York County Choral Society, which he conducted for 31 years. He served the board of the Royal School of Church Music in America for 20 years. The RSCM bestowed on him the HonRSCM at St. Asaph Cathedral, Wales, in 2002. Baldwin Wallace University, Union Theological Seminary in New York, and the University of North Texas are his alma maters. In his partial retirement, he enjoys being a critic of classical music performances in Columbia for The Free Times.

MEMBER-AT-LARGE

Norman McCorkle is a Salisbury, NC, native and a graduate of Shenandoah University with majors in music and history. He did graduate work in history from Wake Forest University and studied organ at Duke University and the University of NC. He has sung under Robert Shaw and Norman Luboff and once accompanied Willie of the Oak Ridge Boys for a wedding. He was employed by the SC Department of Archives and History where he researched and wrote inscriptions for official state historical markers. Later he was employed by the SC Budget and Control Board and then by Consolidated Systems before retiring in 2011. During this time, Norman was Music Director/Organist for a number of churches and has been in his present position at Shady Grove Methodist Church in Irmo for twenty years.

Norman is an ordained deacon in the Presbyterian Church (USA) and is the eighth generation McCorkle that has been a member of his home church, Thyatira Presbyterian, Salisbury, NC, where he serves as the church museum curator and on the Trust Fund Board.

Norman has authored the following books: "The McCorkles and Related Families", which traces his lineage back to 1460; "Thyatira Memories", which is memories of various members/pastors of Thyatira Presbyterian Church; and "Marriage Bonds (1777-1805) of The Rev. Dr. Samuel Eusebius McCorkle" (in preparation). He has also authored numerous articles in "PeeDee Magazine" and "The Journal of the Rowan County Genealogical Society."

He holds professional memberships in the American Guild of Organists; the National Trust for Historic Preservation; and the Rowan County, NC, Genealogical Society. Norman was inducted into the Shenandoah University Hall of Fame in 2016. Norman is married to Linda Joyce Clark, and they have two children and six grandchildren.

MEMBER-AT-LARGE

Karen Shevenell was raised in Columbia, SC. She graduated from the following schools: Irmo High School, 1979; Columbia College (SC), 1983, BM degree in Vocal Performance and Church Music; The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, KY, 1987, MCM degree with an emphasis in Vocal pedagogy.

Karen has served as Secretary of the Executive Committee of the Greater Columbia, SC Chapter of the AGO from 2010-2016. She exchanged her duties of Secretary, as of this year, for the position of Member-At Large, on the same committee.

As of April 3, 2016, Karen began her duties as Minister of Music and Organist at Faith Lutheran Church, West Columbia.

She has served in various aspects of Music Ministry in churches in SC, Louisville, KY; Indiana, and Annapolis, MD. In addition to her duties at Faith Lutheran, Karen is a Voice Instructor at the Carolina Music Academy, which is located in St. Martin-In-The-Fields Episcopal Church, Columbia. She is also a freelance seamstress.

Karen lives in Irmo, and is married to Joe Shevenell. They have 2 children: Joseph Isaac Shevenell, age 16; Miriam Medvec Shevenell, age 13

They also have 3 "fur-babies", all Guinea Pigs, whose names are: Cinnamon, Nutmeg, and Pepper (aka "Dr. P).

REGISTRAR and MEMBERSHIP CHAIR

Susan Sturkie has been Organist at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church since October of 1988. Born in Mooresville, N.C., Susan graduated from St. Andrews Presbyterian College (now St. Andrews University) in Laurinburg, N.C., with a B.M. in Music Education studying both organ and voice. After graduating, she taught elementary school music at Ft. Bragg and Ft. Jackson Dependents Schools. She is a member of the American Guild of Organists, the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, and the Association of Lutheran Musicians of SC. As well as serving as Registrar and Membership Chair of the Greater Columbia chapter of the American Guild of Organists, Susan is Treasurer of the Association of Lutheran Musicians of SC. Susan and her husband Dick are the parents of one son, Trey.

Rising Star

In the May issue of The American Organist, pages 42-43, please read the article entitled "Rising Star."

At age 15, Carolyn Craig was winner of the 2012 Young Organist Competition sponsored by the Greater Columbia AGO Chapter. In 2013 she was the winner of the RYCO held at the Regional Convention also here in Columbia. As the RCYO winner, she performed at the National AGO Convention held in Boston in 2014. Presently she is a student of Chris Young at Indiana University.

Carolyn is an amazing young woman who was considering both medicine and music as career choices, but she has now decided to focus on music. She is definitely a rising star and she got an initial boost from our very own Young Organist Competition. We can be proud of our part in her budding career.

Please consider donating to the Young Organist Competition when you pay your AGO dues this year. Your gift is tax deductible and supports a most worthy cause.

Please send information for June's newsletter to tonyroof@windstream.net by May 20.
