

ST. MICHAEL'S LUTHERAN, Columbia, SC

Moller Op. 4543 – 1926

- Built for St. Timothy's Episcopal, Columbia
- Moved in 1963 to Holy Comforter Episcopal, Olympia, when St. Timothy's Wicks Organ arrived
- Holy Comforter was closed in 1970 and organ relocated at Resurrection Lutheran, Columbia
- Resurrection closed in 2019, and organ moved to St. Michael's.

It is in storage at St. Michael's awaiting decisions on its use.

Four ranks: A Diapason, B Flute, C Viola, D Oboe

GREAT

8 Diapason	85	A
8 Flute	73	B
8 Viola	73	C
4 Flute	--	B
2 Octave	--	A
8 Oboe	73	D

SWELL

8 Flute	--	B
8 Viola	--	C
4 Flute	--	B
4 Viola	--	C
2 Octave	--	C
1 1/3 Flute	--	B
8 Oboe	--	D
4 Oboe	--	D
Tremulant

PEDAL

16 Flute	12	B
8 Flute	--	B

Original chamber in which the four ranks were speaking no longer exists. All other aspects are good. Pipes are being stored safely.

C25 to G67 were in façade at Resurrection. That was likely not true in the original installation. Unknown as of August 2021 who moved the instrument to Olympia or Resurrection. St. Michael laymen moved it from Resurrection. The picture is at Resurrection before its removal.

