Young Organist Competition 2016
at www.columbiaago.org

On Jan. 4, the Greater Columbia Chapter met for a Twelfth Night dinner at a local restaurant. Chapter member Greg Stone was recognized for completing the AGO Service Playing Examination in October. In December, he received notification from the national office that he passed the examination handily and that he will receive an engraved certificate in the near future. Congratulations, Greg! After a delicious meal, AGO members and guests exchanged humorous stories from their experiences as church organists.

Outstanding!

On Saturday, January 23, David Stultz presented an outstanding recital at Trinity Cathedral. David was the winner of the 2015 Young Organist Competition held last March in Columbia. He garnered both the first place prize and the hymn-playing award and, in addition to the monetary prizes, he was invited back to perform a full-length recital. His program included three works by Bach, the Pièce Héroïque of Franck, and works by Mendelssohn, Frank Bridge, Paul Manz, and Nancy Faxon. A 17-year old student of Jason Duroy in Chattanooga, TN, David will be entering the organ competition in Winston-Salem, NC, this year. He is now another of the prestigious “alums” of the Young Organist Competition.

This year’s competition will be held at Trinity Cathedral on Saturday, March 12 at 10:00 a.m. It’s not too late to contribute to this most worthy project of the AGO chapter. We still need funds for this year’s competition. Please send any donations to Frances Webb at 92 Currant Lane, Columbia SC 29210.

SIMPSON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Moundsville, West Virginia

The decision to select a new organ for Simpson United Methodist Church was nearly a year long process. We considered several avenues including rebuilding our current Schantz Pipe Organ and looking at options for going completely digital. After playing a Rodgers Artist Series 579, I was more than pleased with the tonal flexibility of the instrument. The samples for all of the pipe organ stops available are remarkable, as well as the orchestral sounds. I am extremely happy to be playing the Rodgers 4589 Artist Series; it has greatly enhanced our worship since its installation, and the ease of operation of the instrument has made practicing a joy. The congregation, choir, pastor, and I are all very pleased and excited to have this wonderful instrument in our worship space. Many thanks to the R. A. Daffer Church Organs, Inc., Rodgers Organs and Al Murrell for their assistance in choosing the right instrument for our worship needs.

Sincerely,

David Scherrick
